

Deb Fletcher - A diversity and human resources practitioner who is a qualified member of the Chartered Institute of Personnel Development and with wealth of experience and passion for recruitment, community engagement and partnership working. She comes from a sales and marketing background, co-owned a hotel restaurant business and more recently has acted as the lead on diversity within the criminal justice system. She is a trustee of Worcester's YMCA.