

Jane McHugh -

Jane's background in policing, education and business enables her to provide bespoke support to clients utilising her strengths in communication, quality assurance and strategic thinking.

A former police officer, governor and school inspector she currently works as a Centre Coordinator and Executive Leadership Coach for a public service provider employing nearly 5,000 people. Additionally she is an external verifier for the ILM with experience in quality assurance, leadership and management in public, private and voluntary sectors.

Qualified to degree level in education she has that unique blend of experience backed up with theory. This results in the knowledge and skills to deliver a wide range of subjects to diverse audiences, as well as providing advice and guidance on assessment and quality assurance of qualifications.

A Fellow of ILM (Institute of Leadership & Management), Chartered Institute of Educational Assessors (CIEA), Chartered Quality Institute (CQI) Member of Institute for Learning (IfL), Chartered Management Institute (CMI) and associate member of Chartered Institute of Personnel Development (CIPD) ensures she remains up to date with current developments facing individuals and organisations today.